ORDER

On November 10, 2016, defendant filed a second motion for an enlargement of time to respond to the court’s September 20, 2016 order regarding the payment of plaintiffs’ expenses incurred in making the motion to compel, including attorney’s fees. Moving pursuant to Rules 6(b) and 6(b)(1) of the Rules of the United States Court of Federal Claims, defendant seeks a thirty-day extension, up to and including December 14, 2016, to file its response. According to defendant, good cause exists to grant the enlargement because the government has since petitioned the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit for a writ of mandamus regarding the September 20 order and such an enlargement would provide sufficient time for the United States to review a decision from the Federal Circuit, prepare a brief, and obtain the necessary internal and agency review. The court agrees and therefore GRANTS defendant’s motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
